[CNo. 1819 B] From the D.P.O., Re 4846/19 of 13. 9. 19.

Art. 57 of the Grant-in-aid Code does not specifically provide for a grant towards the cost of electric lights and fans for school buildings or hotels apparently because the Code was framed at a time when these fittings were not common. Almost all buildings in the City are now ^{commonly} provided with electric lights and fans that they form almost an inseparable item in a building. Perhaps the term "furniture and apparatus" mentioned in that art. may be taken to include electric lights and fans also.

2. The hotel proper is not to be provided with fans, two fans provided therein being for the manager's quarters. The rest of the fans are for warden's quarters. Lights are provided for the hotel as well as for quarters.

3. In the view stated in para. 1 above, a draft order is submitted for approval.
