Subject. Maximum pay of certain officers recently appointed to the Indian Est. Service.

Attention is solicited to the Govt. of India's letter in G.O. No. 199, dated 14th February 1919, which specifies the terms on which Messrs. Brierley + Papworth + M.R.O. K. Ramasami Menon were confirmed in the Indian Est. Service. It is stated therein that "the maximum limit of emolument will, in all cases, be Rs. 1,000 per mensem" + that this order "must be considered to be of an intermediate character + to have effect pending the introduction of substantive arrangements on the reconstitution of the service". The Govt. of India also stated that "should the ultimate decision on the question of pay be delayed, cases of hardship will be dealt with individually".
