Howe (Ed 2)

6-19-00 of B, from the High Sch, R.-e. No.
3198/19, d/ 27-9. 09.

The memorialist's request is vague and in very general terms (para 8, p. 3, e. f.). The High Court wherein the memorialist is employed has,
as usual, no recommendation to make.
Seeing that he is a Muhammadan and pleads respectable connections to us for orders whether an initial exemption up to Rs 30 may be given for the present.

2 He asks for permission to appear for the Account, Translation & Revenue tests. Revenue test is not required for employment in the High Court. Perhaps he may be allowed to appear for the other two tests twice. Judicial may be consulted w/o.

In the latest memorial he does not ask for exemption to be afforded up to 30. He wants only exemption to appear for tests. Why not sanction his request alone?

p. 2, c. f.

p. 1 c. f.

It is respectfully subd. that para 8 of the memorial was ~~to~~ understood to embody two distinct requests - one for exemption from general educational qualification and the other for permission to appear for special tests. ^{This view} was also taken by the Diego High Court. As however the matter is not absolutely free from doubt, it is ~~not~~ perhaps unnecessary to do anything more than permit him to appear for the tests mentioned in para 2 (p. 1 ante).
