Station Madras, Dated the 2nd October 1919.

From (Name) G. S. White, Esquire, (Solicitor),
(Designation) Deputy Registrar, High Court.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council a copy of a letter No. 593 S, dated the 16th September 1919, from the District Judge of Rannad at Madras, recommending that S.V. Narayanaswami Ayyar, a permanent clerk on Rs. 20 in the Sub Court of Rannad may be exempted from the Examination Rules and permitted to appear for the special test examinations, so as to enable him to qualify for higher posts such as those of the Deputy Nazir and Record Keeper.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

[Signature]
Deputy Registrar.

Copy of letter No. 593 A, dated the 16th September 1919 from the District Judge of Ramnad at Madurai.

I have the honour to recommend that S. V. Narayanasami Ayyar, a permanent clerk on Rs. 20, in the Subordinate Judges' Court, Ramnad be exempted under para 3 of article 1 of the recent Public Service Notification from the bar of Educational qualification, and that he may be permitted to appear for the special tests Examination.

2. He has passed the Middle School Examination in the 2nd class and appeared for the Matriculation Examination. He has put in 19 years service in the judicial department. When I presided over the Ramnad Sub Court between July 1913 and April 1915, he was working in the said court; and I found him intelligent, industrious and quick in the discharge of the duties entrusted to him. He has been well spoken of by judicial officers under whom he has served, among them, being Rao Bahadur S. Ramasami Ayyangar; M. R. Ry S. Raghava Ayyangar, (now Subordinate Judge); M. R. Ry A. Krishna Rao, M. R. Ry V. R. Kuppuswami Ayyar, (now Acting District Judge); and by Rao Bahadur P. S. Seshu Ayyar, (Retired Subordinate Judge).

3. In my opinion he is fit to discharge the duties required in higher posts and carrying salary up to Rs. 100 viz. Copyists, Superintendent, Deputy Nazir, Record Keeper. I, therefore recommend that the exemption asked for may be given, as in my opinion, it is a very fit case for granting it.

The clerk has put in 19 years' service and the Dist. Judge recommends that he may be exempted from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice so as to enable his promotion up to Rs 100 in the Judicial Dept: and that he may be permitted to appear for special tests. It seems too much to exempt ^{an uneducated clerk} straight away for promotion up to Rs 100. It is perhaps sufficient to allow the clerk to go up to Rs 30 p. m. in the first instance; he may also be permitted to appear for the civil & occasional judicial tests on two occasions in each case. The remarks of the Judicial Dept: may be invited w/o.
