Sir,

In filling up ~~the~~ the appointment of the Special Publication Assistant (temporary) sanctioned in G.O. No. 890, Home (Education) Department dated the 5th July 1918, I appointed Mr. Ramanatha Ayyar a permanent clerk on Rs. 40 of the office of the Secretariat Public Works Department, as my Telugu Epigraphical Student temporarily on probation for one year on Rs. 50/- as required by G.O.No. 1008, Public, dated 24th May 1916. His probation ceases on the 27th September 1919. His work has been found to be quite satisfactory and he is anxious that he should now be confirmed as an Epigraphical Student if it were only possible to do so. But I am precluded by the latter order of Government from confirming him as the vacancy is a temporary one lasting only till the temporary establishment for Special Publication is kept up. And if not confirmed he is not entitled to draw Rs. 75/- which is the pay proper of the Epigraphical Student. I request that Government will be pleased to modify the G.O. so as to permit the grant of Rs. 75/- Sub-pro-tem whenever the probationary incumbent cannot be confirmed but has to continue temporarily for a longer period even after the expiry of the probation. Any day Mr. Ramanatha Ayyar may be promoted to Rs. 50/- in the Public Works Department Secretariat, where he holds his permanent appointment and naturally he would not stop here on Rs. 50/- in a temporary place, when a permanent one on the same pay is ready for him. It will be a hard case if without prospects of promotion or higher emoluments he has to continue to draw Rs. 50/- and when ~~occasion~~ arises to quite the office to revert to his permanent place. The G.O. in question lays down again that on confirmation the incumbent should be required to bind himself to serve in the department for a period of 5 years. This again is a condition which could not be fulfilled in the case of Ramanatha Ayyar. I request therefore that in case the modification of the G.O. is not possible, the Government will be pleased to apply at least the provisions of Article 89 of the Civil Service Regulations to enable the acting incumbent to draw Rs. 75/- until he continues to hold any place in the temporary establishment exempting him also from the contract of the 5 years' Bond.

2. I beg to submit further that sanction may be similarly accorded for drawing the pay of Mr. Venkatasubbier (Reader on Rs. 40/-) whom I have appointed to act as Telugu Epigraphical Student in the same chain of appointments, at Rs. 75/- sub-pro-tem by exempting him from holding the place on probation as required by the G.O., since he has already had the necessary course of training for nearly 1 year during which period he has learnt to decipher and interpret inscriptions.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. Krishna Sastri.

Dated the 13th Oct. 1919

To,

The Asst. Arch. Supdt. for Epigraphy, Madras.

Respected Sir,

I understand that, in reply to our letter to you recent regarding the increase of my pay to Rs. 75 per mensem, unofficial reference was received from them enquiring whether I could not be appointed permanently in the permanent vacancy caused by the outgoing of the Kanarese student and that you replied that it is not possible to do so as I do not know Kanarese at present. I therefore respectfully beg leave to submit herewith my petition reiterating some of the points I had already mentioned in my previous representations and Entending also some fresh facts, for favour of your kind reconsideration.

2 Previous to my appointment as a student in this office, I had put in a permanent service of nearly 5 years in the Public Works Secretariat, but, as an outsider, I had to serve out a year of probation here which I have completed satisfactorily by the end of last month. Under the terms of Govt.
1000 Public of 1906, as modified to apply to such subordinate studentships as the one I am employed in, I should be granted the full subprobin pay of Rs. 75 from the date on which my probas ceases.

3. In the meantime, a permanent studentship was vacated by the Kanarese student and I represented that I may be confirmed in it; but you were pleased to say that, for confirmation in that vacancy, I should know Kanarese.
In view, however, of the presumption of Government, as embodied in their recent U.S. note, I beg to think that, when the appointments of students were sanctioned in 1908 & 1909, it could not have been contemplated by Govt that these posts should be considered as separate units, the promotion among (in seniority) and appointments to which were to be regulated by air-tight compartmental rigidity, but that may have been the intention of Govt that the three posts were simply to provide for the requirements of the three languages of the Presidency, viz., Tamil, Telugu & Kanarese, and that so long as all these languages are represented simultaneously at any particular time, office arrangements etc should, as usual elsewhere, be guided as far as possible by seniority and efficiency. In these circumstances, I beg to submit that there may not be any difficulty in confirming me in the present permanent vacancy and of appointing the Kanarese-knowing man in my place (temporarily)

temporarily in any one of the two temporary vacancies now existing in this office - viz - (i) the special Publication vacancy which, according to a modest forecast, may be expected to continue for five or six years and (ii) Mr K. S. Subrahmanya Ayyar's vacancy which, as known at present, is likely to last for three years — with prospects of confirmation when permanent vacancies occur later on.

4. If, against the above, it is urged that the services of Kanarese men may not be secured without a definite promise of early confirmation, they leave to submit that if the existence of the vacancy in the office is given publicity to in the heart of the Kanarese country by applying, if necessary, to the Beggar Darbar or otherwise, some likely candidates may be forthcoming who ~~would~~ ^{may be} willing to take the risk - a necessary evil in almost all offices - of temporary employment for a pretty long period, in the first instance, with prospects of confirmation thereafter.

5. They also to submit that, with a view to equip myself efficiently, I have been endeavouring to acquaint myself with the work of this office in its different aspects, so that I can ^{now} handle all Tamil inscriptions in general, and have also acquired a fair knowledge of the Sillaha - Grantha and the Vattelathu scripts. I have also been learning (Chizh)

Telugu and am appearing this year for the Translation test in it, and as the Kanarese script is very closely allied to Telugu, I trust that, given the necessary opportunities, I shall by conscientious application try to make myself useful, on occasions, in that branch also of our office work. I am also attempting to transcribe, as far as possible, the Telugu and Kanarese inscriptions that are being collected in the Varadacharya Temple here. It will therefore be a very severe hardship if, in an office which counts only a very few men, a new man who has yet to learn the abc of our office work should be confirmed in the present vacancy in preference to his senior, simply because of a technical difficulty which may be obviated and of proficiency in a particular language which is but an accident.

6. In these circumstances, I respectfully request that you will be pleased to kindly reconsider your reply to Govt and to forward my present petition with a favourable endorsement.

7. I beg also to add that, in anticipation of your kind approval, I have submitted a true copy of this petition to Government, so as to gain time & avoid, if possible, the passing of final orders on my case before this petition reaches them through you.

I beg to remain,

to 1847/B. from the A. A. S. for Epigraphy No. 602, d/ 19th Sep. 1919.

The conditions of service of Epigraphical Students are as follows.

- ① On initial appt: they have to be on probation for a period determined by the A. A. S. for Epigraphy.
- ② During the period of probation they get pay at the rate of Rs 50 p.M.
- ③ On confirmation at the end of the probationary period they begin to be paid at Rs 75 p.M and are reqd. to execute an agreement stipulating for a further service of 5 years on the same pay of Rs 75.
- ④ After five years' appt: service on Rs 75 they get one put on the scale of Rs 100-5-125.

2 Of the two cases now subd: for orders, the case of Ramanath Anyar is hereby this:- he was is a permanent clerk on Rs 40 in the P.W.D. Secty. & was entertained as a temporary student in the Epigraphist's office. His period of probation is said to terminate on 27th Sep. 1919 and ^{he} is now ripe for confirmation. But the vacancy ~~in~~ which he is now in is only temporary being in

p. 1, c. 5.

the chain of arrangements caused by the promotion of one of Mr. Kothari's assets: to the post of temporary publication asst: sanctioned in G.O. No.

11 890 Edn. d/ 5th July 1918. It is therefore expected that Rameswathi Ayyar cannot be confirmed. The A. A. S. therefore asks that, as a special case, Rameswathi Ayyar may be permitted to draw Rs 75 & that the liability to bind himself to serve for five years be excused. There is no objection to giving him the higher pay but a guarantee of five years' service seems to be necessary. But it cannot now be said whether Govt. for their part will find it possible to retain Rameswathi Ayyar; for the sanction to the temporary publication staff expires on the 5th July 1920.

But there seems to be a way of getting over the difficulty by giving the post of Kannasee Student stated to be permanently vacant in the linked file. The sanctioned pay of students is all the same and posts are not earmarked for Tamil, Telugu or Kannasee.

A. A. S's letter No. 600, d/ 18.9.19.

(since removed)

3-11

If that permanent post is given to Ramamatha Ayyar, the clerk mentioned in the linked file may be given, ~~the~~ ^{the} temporary post now held by Ramamatha Ayyar.

3 The second case is that of Venkatasubbiah Ayyar. He has now been a temporary Reader on Rs 40 p.m.
 & the A. A. S. wants that he should also be exempted from the period of probation reqd: of Epigraphical students & thus enabled to draw Rs 75 p.m. The argument advanced is that he has had the necessary training. ~~as such~~ ^{apparently} ~~as such~~ It seems that this request will have to be negatived as the rules contemplate ~~probation~~ probation at Epigraphical Student and not in any other capacity.

Under instructions from the Registrar, Supdt. J. Krishnaswami Ayyar went and saw Mr. Krishna Sastri^{ay} and talked over the matter with him. It has been ascertained that the reason for Mr. Krishna Sastri's not recommending the confirmation of Ramanatha Ayyar in the permanent vacancy that has now occurred in the Kanarese Epigraphical ~~Assistant~~ ^{Supdt.} post was on account of the difficulty in securing suitable ^{Kanarese} candidates for temporary and acting vacancies. Mr. Krishna Sastri considered it necessary to keep the vacancy permanent with a view to attract candidates with Kanarese as second language.

2. As an alternative, it was suggested to him that Ramanatha Ayyar might be made provisionally permanent in the arrangement caused by the absence of Mr. K. V. Subrahmanya Ayyar on ^{deputation} by suspending the latter's lien, which the Local Government has power to do under article 89 of the C.S.R., since the deputation is for a period of three years. To this Mr. Krishna Sastri had no objection. As, however, the vacancy so far as the present arrangement goes is to last only ^{for} a period of three years, it is not possible to insist on

3. In regard to the point raised in para 2 of his current letter p. 2 c.f Mr. Krishna Sastri was informed that Venkatasubbayyar should undergo the prescribed probation as Epigraphical student in accordance with rules and he agreed.
