R. C. No. 7771 of 1918.

Station Madras, Dated 21st October 1919.

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. R. Littlehales, M.A..

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
HOME / EDUCATION / Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.Os. Nos.

195 Home (Education) dated 16th February 1918 and 309 Home (Education) dated 13th March 1919, I have the honour to report that Messrs. J.H. Melville and R.M. Statham failed to appear for the test held in July 1919 as required therein. Mr. Melville states that since the order was issued in the 1st of the G.Os. quoted above he was granted an extension of furlough for 10 months owing to ill-health, that he returned to duty only in May 1919 and that therefore he had not sufficient time to prepare for the examination. He now seeks total exemption from passing the test in a Second Vernacular. As regards Mr. Statham it is reported that owing to heavy work at the college and the valuation of Examination papers he had ^{not} time enough to prepare for the examination.

^{therefore} I have the honour to recommend that in the case of Mr. Melville the time limit for passing the test in a Second Vernacular be extended up to July 1920. I am not however prepared to permit or recommend Mr. Statham to take any work (e.g. Examination work for the University) outside his ordinary official duties until he passes his examination in the Vernacular. In the meantime I beg to recommend that the time within which he may be permitted to pass the Examination without the infliction of any penalty for failure to do so may be extended up to January 1920.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

V. Narasimha

CM 2370 A. From the D.P.I., R.C. N° 777104/1919

Subject Compulsory vernacular test.

The D.P.I. recommends that Messrs J. N. Melville & R. M. Statham may be given further ^{extension of time} ~~chances~~ to ^{help} ~~offer~~ for the compulsory vernacular test prescribed for European officers of the Cid Dept.

2. Mr. Melville joined the Dept in ^{November} ~~October~~ 1911 as Inspector of European & Training School.

Under the rules he should, as an Inspector, have passed the compulsory vernacular test in two languages within four years of his appointment. He has, however, passed the test in only one language. In

G.O. N° 805, dated the 16th July 1917, the D.P.I. was requested to inform Mr. Melville, ~~that~~ who was then on leave, that, if he failed to pass the test in July 1918, ^{his} ~~the~~ increment to salary would be stopped. The officer, however, returned from leave leave only in May last. He could have appeared for the test in July of this year, but pleads ~~inability~~ that he had not sufficient time to prepare for the examination. The D.P. I recommend that the period for passing the test may be extended in his case up to July 1920, thus giving two more chances (in January and July 1920) for passing the test. It is submitted that the recommendation may be accepted.

3. Mr R.H. Statham, who is engaged in teaching work (as Principal of the Kumbakonam College) should have passed the compulsory test in the first vernacular in July 1918 at the latest. He has however not yet passed the test. The Director recommends that he may be given another chance before inflicting the penalty of withdrawal of increment to salary. Submitted that the Director's recommendation may be accepted. Draft order is placed below.
