To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE EDWIN MONTAGU,

His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 10th July 1919.

SIR,

We have the honour to forward for your favourable consideration copy of a letter, with its enclosures, from the Government of Madras, no. 648, dated the 20th May 1919, in which it is proposed that Mr. W. S. Hadaway, Superintendent, School of Arts, Madras, should be placed on special duty for a period of two months of his furlough to enable him to take up certain special studies in Europe. Mr. Hadaway proposes to spend a month in Holland in the study of specimens of old eastern work in Museums at Leyden, the Hague and Amsterdam, and the remaining month in London at one of the Government schools where furniture decorating and lacquering are taught.

2. The Government of Madras consider that the suggested course of study would conduce to the interests of the School of Arts, provided Mr. Hadaway's health improves sufficiently to enable him to devote sufficient time and energy thereto. We agree with the local Government and commend the proposal for your acceptance on the terms stated in Lord George Hamilton's despatch no. 146-Public (Educational), dated the 28th November 1902. Should you approve the proposal, we request that your decision may be communicated direct to Mr. Hadaway, and that he may in due course be afforded the necessary facilities to undertake his studies.

We have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient, humble Servants,

(Signed) CHELMSFORD.
