In para. 3 of his letter the Commr. of Police has shown how his efforts to obtain qualified men were not of much use. Further one of the candidates - Mr. Greig belongs to the A.D.F. and the other - Mr. Montgomery served in the B.F. Army during the war. The I.G. supports the recommendation of the Commr. of Police.

In the circumstances there appears to be no objection to accept granting the exemption asked for. The case may be transferred to Home (Poh) for the issue of orders.

We may have a number of cases of this sort. We will be better to make the candidates submit them. - submit to some sort of oral examination by the I. f. or his selects representative?

Not necessary I think. If they really are not good enough to satisfy the oral examination they will be turned out of the school. The only loss is the salary paid in the training
