In lieu of the question sent by me day before yesterday on the subject of the memorial and grievances of the Sub Assistant Inspectors of Schools, I wish to substitute
the following question:-

Local and Municipal (Legislative) Department.

The Hon'ble Mr. B.V. Narasimha Ayyer.

Q.253 (revised) (a) Has the attention of the Government been drawn to the note on page 4 "Hindu" dated 14th August 19, regarding the Memorial of Sub Assistant Inspectors of schools?

(b) Is it a fact that the prospects of these officers have become far worse than what they were ten years ago by the addition of a very large number of posts in the lower grades and by the practical denial of promotions to them into the Provincial Service?

(c) Is it a fact that most of the trained graduates in the Inspectors' grades have to retire before they reach the Provincial Service or even the higher grades of the subordinate service?

(d) Is it a fact that as against 15 sub assistant inspectors in service only one promoted to Sub Assistant is now holding the position of assistant inspector in the Provincial Service?

(e) Is it a fact that subsequent to their memorial their chances have still further been crippled by the abolition of 4 assistant inspectors' posts?

(f) Is it a fact that 43 per cent of the posts are now in the lowest grade as against 16 per cent in 1889?

(g) Is it a fact that their fixed travelling allowance of Rs.25 remains fixed for over 35 years?

(h) Will the Government be pleased to state the total number of appointments in Provincial Service and the number held now by men promoted from (1) Sub asst. inspectors (on inspection duty) (2) subordinate collegiate men (3) others.

(i) In view of the pronouncement of Sir Alfred Bourne, in reply to resolution No.10 of the meeting of the Madras Legislative Council held on 13-5-1913 to the effect that a sub assistant inspectors and subordinate collegiate officers are two parallel classes, that they are of similar calibre, and that the claims of the one could not be considered without that of other, will

the Government be pleased to consider the desirability of improving the prospects of the Inspecting branch also by assigning or creating a reasonable proportion of posts for them into the Provincial Service?

(j) Considering the encomium bestowed on the capacity and utility of the sub assistant inspectors of schools by the successive reports on Public Instruction of the Presidency, and considering the great importance of the function they discharge in controlling and directing mass-education, will the Government be pleased to ameliorate their condition by the grant of a temporary
