Q.333. (a) Will the Government be pleased to declare failed Matriculates entertained in the service prior to the introduction of the S.S.L.C. Scheme as being eligible to all the privileges of a completed S.S.L.C holder under the Public Service Notification dated 15th May 1918 or grant them (failed Matriculates) general exemption to hold appointments carrying a salary of Rs.50/- per mensem?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to grant them general permission to appear for the School Final Examination privately without undergoing the prescribed course in any school?

Answer (Edn.)
The Govt. have already declined unpassed candidates - which term includes also 'failed' matriculates - even to appear for the Public exam. at the end of the S.S.L.C. Course as private candidates. - Vide question & answer recorded in G.O. No. 1602 Edn, d/15.12.17.

(W)

In regard to special tests, it is only recently that the general educational qualification reqd. for appearance thereat was considerably lowered - (G.O. 1021 Edn, d/6.8.17). It is inexpedient to lower it further by allowing persons who have failed in the matriculation exam: also to appear for the tests. A similar suggestion for giving a wholesale permission to old ^{high class} middle-school men was rejected - G.O. 1346 Edn, d/22.10.17.

2 Further in suitable cases recommended by the heads of depts: exemptions from general educational qualification and permission to appear for special tests are freely given. The answer to both clauses of the question may be in the negative. The following draft ^{answer} is for appl: -
