The Hon'ble Mr. B. Venkatapati Raju.

Home (Education) Department.

Q. 273. Will the government be pleased to state whether it is not desirable to issue instructions that the same gentlemen be not appointed as Chief or Assistant examiner for government and other examinations for over two or three terms when capable men are available?

Home (Ed.)

Sulid: That there is no information in office as to what the practice is in respect of the appt. of examiners for Govt. Exams. The question may be forwarded w/o to the C. S. & for remarks & for suggesting an answer to the question.

U.O. Reply No. 24 dated 11.11.19.

I suggest the following draft reply:

When ^{suitable} ~~capable~~ men are available, it is not the practice to appoint for more than three years the same person as Chief or Assistant examiner for Government examination except when that person is appointed ex-officio.

Government cannot obviously issue instructions to examinations which are not under their control.
