Application from Mr. C. P. Acharya, Esq. 28.6.1919 for employment as T.U.S. and Finl. to his salary Rs.100 p.m.

For construction work such as the Cauvery Project we shall require a certain number of men with practical experience and qualifications, not necessarily educationally qualified according to standard test. Applicant appears to be of this class, having excellent testimonials.

2. Will Home (Edn) agree to his exemption for employment as T.U.S. and Finl. to his salary Rs.100 p.m.

Since the P.W.D. are satisfied that the applicant has the necessary professional qualification, 'Education' need not object to his formal exemption from the upper subordinate test of the Coll. of ^{Engineering} ~~Engineering~~. But it would seem expedient to restrict it to a definite period say one year to begin with. On receipt of a copy of the P.W.D. Proceedings with notes orders may issue in Edn. sanctioning temporary exemption. With these remarks the case may be passed on to Financial u.o.

P.W.D. is the best judge and the candidate has excellent testimonials. I have no objection to his being exempted without limit of time for service as a temporary upper subordinate.

or (3) to appoint Mr. C.P.Acharya to one of the sanctioned posts of temporary upper subordinate on Rs.100.

2. In view of the qualifications of Mr. C.P.Acharya, (vide pages 1-8 of papers flaggedF), submitted that if the proposal is that in item (2), or that in item (3) above, it may be accepted in this department, If on the other hand, the proposal is that in item (1) above this department should require information as to the necessity for the creation of the new appointment.

With reference to the Financial Dept. note above it is submitted that D.S's proposal is to convert an appointment on Rs.60 into one on Rs.100 and to offer it to Mr. C.P.Acharya. An offer of appointment of T.U.S. on Rs.100 may now be made to Mr. C.P.Acharya. A draft offer is submitted. As Home (Edn) have agreed to his exemption without limit of time for service as a temporary upper subordinate a copy of these notes may be sent to them for sanctioning the exemption, after ^{the} issue of the offer.
