Sanctioning a transitory regulation relating to the B.A. (Honours) and M.A. Degree examinations of 1920 in History, Economics and Politics.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 4th November 1919.
No.—7408.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of Government, under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the enclosed transitory regulation (to be added to Chapter XXXIII of the regulations) adopted by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Syndicate, at its adjourned meeting held on 25th October 1919.

I am to explain as follows.

The B.A. (Honours) Degree examination in Branch V—History and Economics held in 1919 followed upon the old course of study under which a student had the option of taking any three out of six general subjects and any three out of eight special subjects. The examination in Branch III—History, Economics and Politics of 1920 will be held under revised regulations (vide calendar for 1919), by which a student is required to take all four compulsory general subjects, and any two only out of six special subjects. There are some candidates for Honours who have followed the old course of study but have not yet undergone the complete Final Examination in Honours in History and Economics, and to provide for their examination paragraph 1 of the proposed transitory regulation was recommended to the Senate and adopted.

Paragraph 2 of the transitory regulation is intended to give candidates for the M.A. Degree under transitory regulation 1 (b) of Chapter XXXIII the option of sitting for either of the two Honours examinations in History, Economics and Politics to be held in 1920.

Paragraph 3 is intended to give the candidates for the M.A. Degree examination under the new regulations (Regulations 16 to 20 of Chapter XXIII) permission to select their two special subjects from among the two sets of optional subjects of examination under the new and old courses.

The last paragraph empowers the Syndicate to adjust the time-tables for both the B.A. (Honours) and M.A. Degree examinations in History, Economics and Politics so as to provide for the setting of common papers.
