QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Hon'ble Khan Bahadur Ebrahim Haroon Jaffer
asked :—

14. "Will Government be pleased to state how many Indians have recently been admitted into the Indian Educational Service in the whole of India and give figures as to the different Provinces and the creeds of the men so admitted?"

Number of Indians admitted into the Indian Educational Service.

The Hon'ble Mr. Shafi replied :—

"A Statement* giving the information is laid on the table. It omits certain appointments very recently made whose confirmation is conditional upon medical examination, also the case of three Indians who have recently been appointed in temporary posts on pay analogous to that of the Indian Educational Service.

The statement which I am now placing on the table supplies the information asked for for the last 20 months province by province. The net result is that 29 Indians have been appointed, of whom 25 were Hindus, one Muhammadan, one Sikh, one Parsi and one Christian."

* Vide Appendix B.
