The Hon'ble Mr. B. Venkatespati Raju

15th Nov 1919

Home (Education) Department.

For a 275, will the government be pleased to exempt those graduates who have put in five years service in a recognised institution from undergoing the practical training in the Training Colleges?

para 11 of the go. and page 20 of the report there. There seems to be no necessity to revise the old system. Besides it is doubtful whether the Government will permit private candidates to appear for the exam. The following draft answer is submitted for consideration:-

The Govt. are unable to entertain the suggestion. The file may perhaps be closed for reference.

Home (200) Dep

Prior to the revision of the Education rules in 1906, untrained graduates who had put in service in a school for a specified number of years were granted 'approved service certificates'. This system was put an end to in G.O. 509 & 31-7-06 - vide para 11 of the G.O. and page 80 of the notes thereto. There seems to be no necessity to revive the old system.
Besides it is doubtful whether the University will permit private candidates to appear for the L.T. degree examination.
The following draft answer is submitted for consideration:-

"The fort. are unable to enter the suggestion."
