Q. 139. Is the Government aware of the fact that the panchamas are opposed to the opening of special secondary schools exclusively for panchamas since they resent being segregated from other classes ?

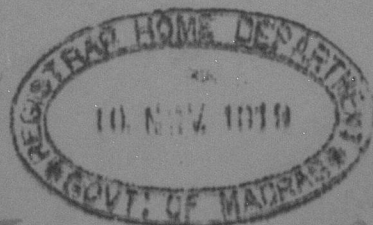

Home (Edn) Dept

In connection with a suggestion made at the meeting of the Finance Committee held in ~~January~~ ^{March} last that ^{special} provision should be made for the secondary education of Panchamas the D.P.I. reported that the proposal to open special secondary schools for the benefit of Panchamas was neither educational sound nor practically feasible. He was of the opinion that Panchamas should be admitted into all schools on an equal footing with any other section of the community. Eventually the Govt dropped the proposal to open a special secondary school for Panchamas and sanctioned the institute of special scholarships for ^{their benefit} ~~Panchamas~~. There is however no information before Govt to the effect that the Panchamas themselves are opposed to the opening of special secondary schools for their benefit and that they resent being segregated from other classes. The following draft answer is for approval.

"~~As~~ The Govt have no ^{specific} ~~definite~~ information on the subject, they have ~~dropped the idea~~ no intention of opening separate ^{exclusive} schools for Panchamas."
