with Q 350

The Hon'ble Mr. M.C. Raja.

Home (Education) Department.

Q. 350. Will the Government be pleased to enquire whether there are schools which, admitting panchama boys, do not give them equal facilities with the other so-called caste boys?

There is no reason to interpret the question as above; the member may perhaps say that the Hon'ble member will specify what the difference in facilities he refers to. The Govt will consider it as being a question.

The Additional member apparently refers to the practice in certain aided schools where Panchama pupils are made to sit apart from other caste boys in the class room. Even if ~~the~~^{an} enquiry is instituted as suggested by the Additional member, it is doubtful whether ~~the~~ truth will be elicited. The following draft answer is subd. for approval.

"The Com. do not think it desirable or necessary to institute the enquiry suggested"

There is no reason to

~~the~~^{the} interpret the question as above, we may perhaps say:—

If the Honourable member will specify what the difference in facilities he refers to the Govt will consider if it is necessary to enquire

The question and answer as first approved stood as follows:-

- 210 Q.—Will the Government be pleased to enquire whether there are schools which, admitting panchama boys, do not give them equal facilities with the other so-called caste boys? Admission of panchama boys in schools.
- 210 A.—If the Honourable Member will be good enough to specify the 'equal facilities' to which he refers, Government will consider his suggestion.
