Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, a memorial dated the 4th November, 1919 from M. Narayana Panikar, permanent 19th clerk of the District Court of South Malabar and acting 8th clerk of the Subordinate Judge's Court, Calicut, for permanent exemption from the Examination Rules, so as to enable him to hold appointments carrying a salary of more than Rs.20 a month.

2. A copy of a letter No.5744, dated the 12th November 1919 from the District Judge of South Malabar forwarding the application is enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

No. 5744 dated the 12th November 1919, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

I have the honour to forward herewith a memorial from M.
Narayana Panikar, permanent 19th clerk of this court and acting 8th clerk of the Sub Court, Calicut, praying that he may be exempted from the examination rules to enable him to hold appointments carrying a salary of more than Rs. 20/- a month.

The District Judge of South Malabar, C A L I C U T.

Through

The Subordinate Judge of Calicut.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

The undersigned, who is ~~an~~ acting 8th clerk of the court of the Subordinate Judge, Calicut, begs to approach your Excellency with this memorial and most respectfully states as follows:--

That your Excellency's memorialist is now a permanent clerk on Rs. 20/- in the District Court of South Malabar, Calicut, that although he has put in more than 5 years' permanent service in the department in addition to the acting service of more than 4 years, he has not been fortunate enough to obtain a higher salary owing to the fact that he is disqualified under the examination rules.

That your Excellency's memorialist belongs to a respectable but now a poor Nayar tarwad in Calicut, and that he was not able to prosecute his studies beyond the Matriculation class owing to the straitened circumstances of his tarwad and that he was forced to seek Government service to earn his bread so early as in his eighteenth year.

That your Excellency's memorialist begs to submit that though he has not had the advantage of being a passed candidate falling within the definition of the term as defined in the public service notification, he has acquired sufficient knowledge of --- English by private study and experience and as such he is now competent to do any and every clerical business in a Civil Court as efficiently as any passed candidate, if not better; that during the short period of his service he had been employed in several branches of business in a Civil Court i.e., as bench clerk in -- Original and Small Cause Suits as well as in Miscellaneous and -- Execution proceedings and he has not been found wanting in any capacity; & that he has earned the appreciation of his work from the superiors under whom he had served. A copy of the testimonial granted to him by the Principal District Munsif of Calicut is herewith submitted.

That having regard to the fact that the prices of food stuffs and cloths have considerably increased of late, the lot of your Excellency's memorialist has become very miserable and he finds it very difficult to maintain himself and his family with the pay of Rs. 20/- which he is now getting and so your Excellency's memorialist respectfully appeals for mercy.

Under these circumstances your Excellency's memorialist respectfully prays that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to grant him a general exemption from the examination rules.

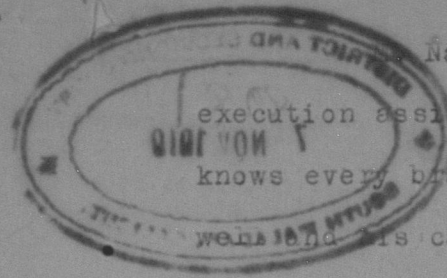

For which act of kindness and charity, your Excellency's memorialist shall ever pray. Full of loyalty and gratitude,

Your Excellency's memorialist most humbly begs to remain,
Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

M. Narayana Panicker.

Forwarded for submission to Government. The memorial is a smart clerk with a knowledge of the several branches of work in a Civil Court & having a sense of duty.
He is in every way deserving of the exemption applied for.

Narayana Panikkar has been process writer and execution assistant in my court for nearly 1½ years. He knows every branch of work of a Munsif's Court thoroughly well and his capacity is such that he will prove a very efficient clerk. He is unfortunately unpassed and richly deserves to be exempted from the examinations.
