I suggest the following: Government have for many years controlled and maintained secondary schools at Saidapet, Madras, Rajahmundry and Mangalore. They have recently assumed control of secondary schools at Chittoor and Tiruvalur and of second grade colleges at Tellicherry, Palghat and Coimbatore. The provincilisation of secondary schools in practically every large centre throughout the presidency has been considered at different times.

schools in the Presidency which was at one time under consideration was definitely abandoned by Govt as it was opposed by mission as well as by non-mission bodies. In its place a smaller scheme for taking over 4 schools under Govt management was substituted & this was sanctioned in Go. No. 498, dated the 17th April 1919. ~~There~~ There is thus no scheme at present before Govt for opening any more Govt secondary schools. It is therefore for order whether the Additional Member may not be definitely told that the Govt ^{at present} do not contemplate opening ~~any~~ school in any other centre. The ~~sentence~~ ^{sentence} will not be a direct answer to the question "how many other centres have been contemplated which specifically refers to a contemplated future course of action. ~~But~~ The sentence will not ^{give} full information or will not be defective in saying what has been the ~~of~~ those considerations ~~on~~
