The Hon'ble Mr. H. C. Raja.

HOME (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

Q. 133. Will the Government be pleased to state whether any scheme is under contemplation for the expansion and improvement of education among panchayats ?

There is no scheme now under consideration for the development of Panchama education. In framing proposals for the opening of new elementary schools, the D.P. I always take into account the special needs of Panchamas. Training schools for Panchamas are ^{opened} and special scholarships for their benefit are ^{instituted} ~~sanctioned~~ whenever the need for the same arises. When the Elementary Education Bill becomes law, it will be one of the duties of the District Educational Councils ^{to be constituted under the Act} to frame schemes for the expansion of elementary education among all classes including Panchama. Mr. Paddison, the Special officer for depressed classes has also been asked to ~~submit~~ ^{submit} ~~recommendations~~ deal with problems connected with the education of these classes.
