The answer that I suggest to the original ^{typical} ~~proper~~ question is "Yes". If however the corrected question is to be answered I suggest: "The Hon. Member is referred to the Reports on Public Instruction. The ^(elementary school) pay of teachers is under consideration by the Salaries Committee. The institution of a Provident Fund is also under ^{the} consideration of Government."

Home (Edw) Sept

The answer should be framed with reference to the question as revised by H. E. The President of the Salaries Committee has stated in another connection that the Committee will deal only with general principles and not with questions relating to individual establishments. It is for consideration whether the draft answer suggested by me to D. P. may be approved.
