In reply to a similar question asked by the Honble Mr. Annamalai Chettiar at the meeting of the Legislative Council held in February 1918, it was stated that "The Govt have approved, as an experimental measure, the imparting of moral instruction in the higher forms of four select Govt secondary schools according to an approved syllabus" and that "the consideration of the question of religious instruction in schools has been postponed for the present". The position in regard to religious instruction still remains the same. As regards moral instruction, the Govt have recently approved the Director's proposal to introduce it as a compulsory subject in the fourth, fifth & sixth forms of Govt & recognized secondary schools for boys & girls in this Presidency. The following draft answer is for approval:-

"The Govt have sanctioned the introduction of moral instruction according to an approved syllabus"
