The Secretary, Boy Scouts of India Association, Madras, applied ^(last year) for a non-recurring grant of Rs. 1,000 for the purpose of establishing the movement on a proper footing and the District Commissioner, Madras Girl guides, asked for a grant of Rs. 2,400 a year to enable them to secure the services of a paid captain & a Secretary. ~~That~~ As it was found that no aid was given to the movement from Govt funds in Bengal & Bombay it was decided that a similar procedure should be adopted in this Presidency also. The D.P.D. was accordingly asked by H.E. Lord Pentland to see Mr. Edmonds, Secretary, Boy Scouts of India Association, & Miss Sampson, the District Commissioner, Madras Girl guides, and explain the matter to them. No further application has been received from the authorities of these movements for a Govt grant.
