Despatch No. 4 of 187249

Letter - to

The Right Hon'ble the Secy. of
State for India, London.

Sir,

We have the honour to address you on the subject of filling permanently the existing vacancy in the post of Professor of Mathematics, Presidency College, Madras.

2. The post which is included in the Indian Educational Service was rendered vacant in February last in consequence of the appointment of the permanent incumbent, Mr. R. Littlehales, as Director of Public Instruction in succession to Sir Henry Stone. In exercise of the power vested in us to make temporary appointments to the Indian Educational Service, we appointed Mr. K. Ananda Rao to officiate temporarily in the post. He joined his appointment on the 7th July 1919.

3. Mr. Ananda Rao possesses high academic qualifications. He passed the B.A. (Honours) degree examination of the Madras University in the first class in 1914 with Mathematics as his subject and then proceeded to Cambridge where he passed the Mathematical Tripos Examination, Parts I and II, class I, in 1915, and also won the Smith's prize in
