My dear Ramachandra Rao,

I have not been able to trace the main file to which this refers. As soon as I do so, I shall return it to you; but the necessity of retaining Mr. Grieve in the Director's office for the present owing to Mr. Littlehailes having to take Mr. Duncan's place renders it impossible for him to go. The Government of India may be informed that we greatly regret that under existing circumstances we cannot depute any one this year.

Yours sincerely,
