R.C. No. 25
Andia 6/9

Station Madras, Dated the 1st January 1919

From (Name) P.L. Moore, Esquire, C.I.E., I.C.S.

(Designation) Inspector-General of Police

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Educational) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to reconsider, as a special case, their order No.9, Home (Educational) of the 4th instant declining to sanction the exemption from the examination rules of C.D.Srinivasacharya and G.Samia Pillai, typists of the Offices of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Railways and C.I.D. and the Superintendent, Government Railway Police, Trichinopoly, respectively for employment as clerks in the Finger Print Bureau.

2. On receipt of G.O.No. 2573, Home (Judicial), dated the 6th December 1917, sanctioning a temporary establishment of 5 additional clerks in the Finger Print Bureau, I sanctioned the exemption of these two typists for a year for employment in the bureau as it was reported that they were quite competent for the posts and had an excellent record. The retention of the temporary staff for a year more has been sanctioned in G.O. No. 2308, Home (Judicial), dated the 12th October 1918. If these clerks are now reverted to their permanent posts, it will be necessary to appoint in their place outsiders who will take months to learn the work, which being purely technical in nature is not easy to pick up, and who will therefore be more a hindrance than a help during the remaining period for which the temporary staff has been sanctioned. The Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Railways and C.I.D. reports that both these men are very efficient and as good as passed candidates. Apart from the fact that they thoroughly deserve the concession on account of their excellent services, it would be a waste of time and money to turn them out of the bureau after they have been trained and found fit for the work merely because they lack the required educational qualification. I therefore request that Government will kindly see their way to exempt the men from the rules, if not permanently, at least for the period for which the temporary establishment will be employed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. S. W. Filer

for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

Subject:— Exemption from examination rules

The reasons for declining to grant the exemption of the clerks referred to in the I. G.'s letter will be found in the Secretary's note at bottom of p. 3 of B.O. no. 9 (Edw.) of 4.1.19. Submitted that in the circumstances ^{now} mentioned by the I. G. in para 2 of his letter, the Board order quoted above may be reconsidered and the exemption applied for sanctioned. The I. G. requests that if Board are not inclined to exempt the clerks permanently, they may exempt them at least temporarily, for the period for which the establishment in the Finger-Print Bureau will last.

It is for consideration whether, in view of the strong recommendation of ~~the Board~~ ^{the I. G.}, they may be permanently exempted from the examination rules, ^{as originally recommended} ~~in accordance with the information of~~

The scale of pay for three appointments is apparently R. 20-2-30-3-45-2-65-3-80
5 years 5 years 10 years 5 years
(See para 9 of D.A.P. inst. of p. 11 of 80. No 2075 Home (p. 1) of 6-12-17). This curious scale contemplates 25 years service in the post before the maximum is obtained; & the starting pay is such that hardly any passed candidate will look at it.

I presume ^{that} the work is of a kind which does not require a high standard of intellect or education; but that continued employment thereon is desired either because it is necessary to have frequent changes in ^{the} personnel, or because experience has shown that the value of a man employed on these special duties increases the longer he is kept at them.

I do not object to an order issuing ^{verbally} as modified.
