Sir, "Application for exemption from Examination rules to appear for Special Test Examinations"

Enc. 25/2

I beg to enclose herewith a statement of marks obtained by me in the Matriculation Examination in 1908 & re-Examination (February 1909). After passing the first Examination, I only failed in one subject (Mathematics) for want of 3 marks in the re-Examination. It was therefore a great misfortune to me that the examination had to be reheld. I am a temporary clerk on Rs 20 since 1-9-'13. As I want to better my qualification with a desire to learn business in the Revenue & Account matters I wish to appear for the Special Test Examinations:- Revenue Test Translation (lower) & ~~Revenue~~ Civil Account Test.

2. I therefore request that you will be good enough to recommend my application for exemption from examination rules to appear for Special Test Examinations.

Memo no 2855 Ad/18-2 dt 1.11.18

The SE VI Circle is informed that if the applicant wishes to qualify himself for service in other depths, the special tests qualification alone without the general educational qualification mentioned in Art 1 of the Public Service Rules will not be of any avail. This should be pointed out to the P. E. Madura Div and he should be asked to report if he still recommends the clerk's request.

A.W. Robert, Esquire, Executive Engineer, Madura Division, to the Superintending Engineer, VI Circle, Trichinopoly.

Reference:- Your No. 7560 dated 11-11-1918.

I have the honour to state that the clerk claims that he would have had the general educational qualification if only the results of his first Matriculation had held good and that on re-examination he only failed to qualify by two marks in Mathematics. I consider the clerk is better qualified than the majority of actually qualified clerks who are appointed to this Department. The case seems to be one of unmerited hardship and I would request a favourable consideration of his claims.

The enclosed is an application from one R. Amantam, a temporary clerk in the P.W.D. ^(on 20.9.18) for permission to appear for Special Tests. The Special permission of Govt. is required because he is not qualified under Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice. In the disposal of applications of this kind, it is usual for the Dept. of Education to be guided by the opinion of the administrative Dept. In this case Public Works have simply transferred the current; their recommendation as to whether the application should or should not be complied with may be obtained upon may be stated that none of the tests under the Special Test Notice is reqd. for service in the P.W.D. Presumably he wants to qualify for appts. in other depts. Even these Special Test qualifs. alone without the general educational qualification mentioned in Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice will not be of much avail.

This is purely a personal matter. The applicant is a temporary clerk in the Madura Division and requests to be permitted to apply for the marginally ^{as he is not sufficiently qualified to do so} Special test Examination. The Executive Engineer under whom the clerk directly works speaks well of the clerk's work and recommends the application. The P.W.D. Secy have no more information about the the clerk than what is on record on the application, and ^{for this} none of the ^{Special Tests} ~~examinations~~ referred to are required for service in the P.W.D. In the circumstances, the ^{act} P.W.D. is not in a position to make any Special Recommendation in the matter. Home (E.C.) will have to deal with the case on the E.C.'s recommendations and with reference to the general policy, if any, followed by that dept. in dealing with such applications.

With the above remarks the case may, it is submitted, be returned to Home (E.C.) etc.

Attention is however invited to the portion of the notes sub-lined B on page 2 ante. Perhaps this may be pointed out to the SE and he be asked whether the Encl. Log. still recommends the clerk's application.

2. From the EE's present recommendation it will be seen that the clerk seeks exemption from the examination rules not only to enable him to appear for the Special Test examinations but also to make him eligible for the other privileges of a passed Candidate. Presumably his intention is, to get the exemption from the examination rules to appear for the Special Tests now, and after he passes them, to seek exemption from the general educational qualifications to enable him to secure the appointments for which he has passed the special tests. Exemption from general educational qualifications has recently been given to some clerks in the II Circle for promotion up to Rs 30 per m. These men had put in about 10 years service each on the whole. The present applicant has put in a service of only 5 years ^(temporary) ^{unlimited} ^{of} ~~whole~~ exemption to permit unpassed men to rise to any place in the clerical list has not been given so far as known.

informed that there is no sufficient reason to recommend the applicant's case to Govt. for orders

The applicant is an un-passed man and ~~his~~ ^{his} function beyond the present grade of Rs 20 which he occupies ~~depends~~ ^{depends} educational qualifications. There have been recent cases in which unpassed men with long service and with a good record have been exempted from general educational qualifications for appointments up to Rs 30.

Special test examinations need be passed for appointments on higher-pay than Rs 30 only and so the need for the applicant passing Special test examinations is so remote if it will ever arise at all, that the question of exempting him from these examinations need not be considered. If the Engr. Enquire wants the man exempted from general educational qualifications for appointments up to Rs 30, he may be asked to make a recommendation accordingly

The Clerk's case seemed to be rather a hard one.

I am not aware of the reasons for the re-examination, but he appears to have passed the first examination satisfactorily & only failed by a very narrow margin in one subject in the re-examination —

He is reported to be actually better qualified than the theoretically qualified men who are appointed to the Dept. I think he might well be given the chance to better his prospects as he requests —

The recommendation for exemption is based purely on personal grounds. The Under-Secretary P. W. D. (Mr. Stoney) however considers that the clerk's case is a hard one as he passed the first examination and failed in only one subject by a narrow margin in the re-examination. Submitted that this is no ground for permitting him to appear for the Revenue, Translation and Account Tests as these are not required for employment in the P. W. D. and as the permission applied for ~~could not~~ therefore be said to be in public interests.

There are no administrative reasons upon which the Dept can base a recommendation for exemption.

The objection is made by the clerk on personal grounds. If the ^{Home} (Rm) Dept considers that the circumstances justify the exemption as a personal concession to the clerk we have no objection to it. In such circumstances the case seems to be mainly one for the Rm. Dept to decide.
