Read the following paper :-

From E.W. Leigh Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Salem Dis.No.3817/D of 18, dated the 3rd December 1918.

I have the honour to submit for favour of Board's Orders an application from N. Sayyid Muhammad a clerk on Rs.20 in Omalur taluk office for exemption from examination rules to appear for special tests and to report as follows:-

17.

2-4 info

2. The applicant is a clerk on Rs.20 and has a pensionable service of 5 years and 6 months.

3. The Tahsildars under whom he has worked, state that the applicant is a good clerk and he has been doing his work satisfactorily. They and the Revenue Divisional Officer recommend the petitioner's request.

4. I recommend therefore that the Board will be pleased to exempt him from examination rules with a view to enable him to appear for special tests. He appears to have the educational attainments - requisite for the purpose.

5. His application dated 19th March 1918 with its four enclosures and a copy of his petition dated 15th October 1918 bearing endorsements of the Tahsildar and Revenue Divisional Officer are submitted herewith.

Application dated 15th October 1918 from N. Sayyid Muhammad.

With due respect and humble submission, I respectfully beg to bring these following few lines to your honor's kind consideration, hoping to meet with success.

I beg to state that I have applied on 4-4-18 in this Taluk No. 369/Mis. dated 4-4-18 for exemption from passing examination rules to appear for special test examinations and I have not yet received any

any favourable orders. I beg to state that I have stated in my previous application that I am a scion of the families of the Nawab of Ahmednagar, the Nawab of Guzarath and the Governor of Patten, a subsidiary state of the Province of Guzarath and the direct lineal descendant of Syed Muhammad Kasutharaj Bauthanavaj the sage - whose name and fame are widely known in all parts of India and elsewhere, as the most pious member of the Syed Dynasty and Syed Khanji, the most valiant noble of sultan of Guzarath and my forefathers were specially just at the close of Mysore wars invited by Military officers and granted lands freely in several parts of parts of this country by order of General Harris.

As regards my educational qualification, I have studied up to Matriculation standard from which I had to discontinue my studies owing to my straitened circumstances. Now I am a permanent taluk clerk on Rs.20 discharging work satisfactorily and I have put in service of 5 years and 8 months. May I therefore request that your Honour will graciously consider my noble ancestry which is now in despondent condition, my good work in the office, sufficient service for acquaintance of the work and my educational ability which is not less than that of a school final candidate, treat my case as a special one and me exemption from passing examination rules to appear for relief, as I am a drowning man with some hope of regaining life struggling in the pangs of my last hours. For this act of kindness, I shall ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

Endorsement

Respectfully submitted for favourable consideration.

The clerk has been dutiful and diligent in the discharge of his work. His character has been good from the short experience I have of him. His request deserves consideration.

The application dated 19th March 1918 of N.Sayyid Muhammad and its four enclosures referred to in paragraph 5 of the letter read above have not been received. The Collector is requested to submit to appear.

Collector requested to report whether he is prepared will consider the desirability of addressing Government for his exemption from the provisions of article - 1 of the Public Service Notification for the purpose which, if granted, will also render him eligible for the Revenue test (Vide note iii) to Article 4 of the Special Tests Notification published at page 329 of Part I B to the Fort St. George Gazette dated 28th May 1918..

From E.W. Legh Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Salem Dis.

No.147/D of 19, dated the 10th January 1919.

In reply to Board's Reference No.4312-18-1 dated the 9th December 1918, I have the honour to submit herewith the application, dated the 19th March 1918 of N.Syed Muhammad and its four enclosures.

2. The Tahsildar of Omalur and the Revenue Divisional Officer of Sankari report that the applicant will be fit to be appointed as a Revenue Inspector after he passes the Revenue test. I am not at this moment prepared to say that I consider the applicant fit for the post of Revenue Inspector; he has so far only served as a junior clerk in the Taluk office, Unless however the permission to appear for the examination be granted he cannot qualify himself and experience shows that it is useless for a man to attempt to pass examinations after he has grown old in the service. I therefore recommend the exemption applied for, //

in

The Collector of Salem

Through

The Revenue Divisional Officer, Sankaridrug

and

The Tahsildar of Omalur.

The humble application of N.Syed Muhammed, a clerk
in the Taluk Office Omalur, Salem District,

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:-

Th Applicant craves leave to approach your honour as he is animated by the memory of his lineage to hope for some improvement in the prospects of his official life and he now entreats your honour to afford him some adequate relief as he (the applicant) cannot aspire in the usual course of promotions at this time of keen competition and hard struggle to rise up to such a position as may enable him to lead a decent life.

This applicant is a scion of the families of the Nawab of Ahmednagar, The Nawab of Guzarat, and the Governor of Patan, a subsidiary state of the Province of Guzarat. He is the direct lineal descendent of Syed Muhammed Kasutharaj Bantha Nawaj-- the sage of Agmer whose name and fame are widely known in all parts of India, and elsewhere as the most pious member of the syed dynasty and he lived in the latter part of the early Mohammedan period (of the)

of the Indian History, and his Great-grand-son was Syed Kanjee the most valient noble of the Sultan of Guzarat, and this applicant is the eighth descendant of that statesman whose administration and influence won for him lasting reputation.

This applicant's mother is the Great-grand-daughter of Mohammed Shah, Malik Illahabad, and Mallik Ossman who were the grand-sons of the Governor of Patan in those olden days, and grand-daughter of Bano Bibi, the Great-grand-daughter of Pathima begum, the Daughter of the Nawab of Ahmednagar. The applicant submits that he has been able to trace his lineage almost to the early part of the Mohammeden history of India by the help of the most valuable book written in Urudu on the life of Syed Mohammed Mahidi by Syed Vali of Secondraebad fifteen years ago.

The applicant begs to submit that he has thought that it may not be wrong on his part to be proud of his noble ancestry and to rest his claim on that ground for your honour's gracious consideration for granting him a lift from that despondent condition he is now in. The applicant has received some strength of heart when finds that his ancestors were held in high esteem by many of the British administrators of the early part of the English period of the Indian History.

(There are)

There are records to point out that the military officers just at the close of the Mysore war have specially sent invitations to the forefathers of this applicant, during the time of Captain Wright Bahadur who was in charge of Baramal (the province consisting of Palghat, Coimbatore and Salem Districts) and General Harris ordered his subordinates to make concessions and freely granted lands in several parts of the country.

This applicant submits that his anxiety and enthusiasm to serve the Government have been much intensified by the full flourish of the glorious part of his ancestry. But he submits that his educational qualifications are not high enough. Hence he has his hopes only in your Honour's gracious generosity.

P.S.

This applicant submits that he continued his studies up to his Matriculation Standard and he was not able to continue on account of his straightened circumstances, and he is now a clerk in the Omalur Taluk Office. As a student his conduct and his industrious habits were appreciated by his teachers as the testimonials appended hereto will speak of themselves. As a clerk in this Taluk office, the applicant believes that he has acquainted himself to the full satisfaction of all his superiors, through whom this application is submitted. As a Mohamaden proud of his pedigree in forlorn condition he begs (that)

that your honour may be gracious enough to get him exempted pangs of his last hours, this humble applicant implores your honour to bestow on him any relief which may appear to your honour to be enough for this applicant who prays as in duty bound for your honour's long life and prosperity.

The applicant humbly begs to remain,

From para 2 of the Collector's letter, it appears that he recommends the grant of a general permission to the clerk to appear for the special tests ordinarily required for service in the Revenue Department, viz. the Revenue, Criminal Judicial and Account Tests. The Revenue Department support the Collector's recommendation. The clerk may, as usual, be permitted to appear for the tests on two occasions in each case.
