mufassal Civil Courts sanctioned

(Judicial), dated the 27th March 1918, exemption became necessary in the case of such of them as were unpassed men, but, as the District Judges sent up recommendations as a matter of course, their attention was drawn to the fact that the pay was raised to secure better qualified men and they were asked to select and recommend only deserving persons for exemption. The 56 persons included in the list enclosed have been so recommended by the District Judges. Numbers 52 to 56 in the list have been recommended by the District Judges concerned for exemption enabling them to hold appointments up to Rs.40 and 50 per mensem, but the Hon'ble the Judges are of opinion that it would suffice for the present to exempt them for posts up to Rs.25, leaving it to District

Judges to make further proposals, if necessary, as vacancies occur. The Hon'ble the Judges however recommend that Gulam Mohidin Sahib, Amin, Conjeevaram District Munsif's Court, No.56 in the list, may be granted permission to appear for the Special Test Examinations as prayed for by (Letter No.14 in the file of letters of District Judges)

3. I am also directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, a letter from District Judge of Godavari (No.17 in the file of letters of District Judges) recommending the exemption from Provisional Rules of Kareem Beg at present Deputy Nazir of Temporary District Munsif's Court of Ramachandrapur to him to hold the Deputy Nazir's post on the revised pay. He was exempted by Government from Examination up to Rs.30 in their letter No.263 Miscellaneous, dated 17th March 1915 and has since been appointed as a Judge of the Ramachandrapur Court. The pay of the District Judge of Ramachandrapur, which was Rs.25 under the old scale, is now Rs.40 under the revised scale.

A similar application was once submitted to this Court along with this Court's letter No. 1048 dated 18-7-1918.
