Copy of letter dated the 6th February 1919 from Sir P.S.Sivaswamy Aiyer, K.C.S.I., C.I.E.

From a copy of a letter sent by the Manager in charge of the office of the University of Madras to the Correspondent Tamil Lexicon Committee, I understand that my proposals for the better organisation of the work of the Tamil Lexicon, which were originally accepted by the Government in G.O. No.198 (Home) (Education) dated the 16th February 1918, have since been departed from and other arrangements have been sanctioned at the instance of the Syndicate. As I do not think that the arrangements now sanctioned are conducive to the efficiency of the work, I feel I cannot continue to be a member of the Lexicon Committee and bear any responsibility for the work. I have therefore the honour to tender my resignation of my membership of the Lexicon Committee. I have also written to the Registrar of the University to-day informing him of my resignation.

Subject: - Resignation by Sir P. S. Sivaswami Ayyar of his membership in the Tamil Lexicon Committee

Sir P. S. Sivaswami Ayyar is a member and chairman of the Tamil Lexicon Committee - page 1 of Geo. no 198, Home (Gen) D. 16.2.18. The revised arrangement in regard to the management of the work connected with the Tamil Lexicon, referred to by him, is apparently that sanctioned by Govt in Geo. no 43, Home (Gen) D. 13.1.19, viz, the appointment on the Editorial Staff of the Tamil Lexicon of two Assistant Editors in lieu of a third joint Editor as originally sanctioned. Sir P. S. Sivaswami Ayyar thinks that the above arrangement is not conducive to the efficiency of the work connected with the Lexicon and that he cannot therefore continue to be a member of the Lexicon Committee and bearing responsibility for the work. He has already informed the ^{University Registrar} of his resignation.
