GOVT OF INDIA

Premain,
 Dear Sir,
 yours most obediently & gratefully,
 Uma Charan Banerji,
 Proprietor.

"SAMSKRITA BHARATI" OFFICE,
BURDWAN P.O., BENGAL.

No. S.
B.

Dated, 21. 2. 1917.

Proprietor—Sreejut Umacharan Banerji Vidyaratna, Sastri, M. A., Principal and Professor of Sanskrit and English, Burdwan Raj College; Vice-President, Bangiya Sahitya Parisad, Burdwan Branch; sometime Added Member-Faculty of Arts, Calcutta University, Member, Board of B. A. examiners, Calcutta University, Author of an "Appeal to the educated public for the compilation of a new Sanskrit Lexicon, joint-editor, Samskrita Bharati with an English Supplement, &c. &c.

The 4th issue has been out, the 5th is in the press.

SAMSKRITA BHARATI WITH AN ENGLISH SUPPLEMENT.

(A quarterly Anglo-Sanskrit Magazine of Literature, Philosophy and Science.)

Annual subscription payable in advance.

Sanskrita Bharati with the English Supplement	...	...	Rs. 5 0 0
Sanskrita Bharati (in Sanskrit)	...	...	Rs. 3 8 0
Sanskrita Bharati Supplement (in English)	...	...	Rs. 1 8 0

Specially intended for use in affiliated Colleges, High, Normal and Training Schools, Chatuspathis, Public Libraries, Societies, Museums, etc., and of educated gentlemen interested in Sanskrit Learning.

Under the distinguished patronage of the Governments of Bengal, Madras, United Provinces and Oudh, Bihar and Orissa, Central Provinces and Berar, Assam and Baroda and also approved by the Educational Department, Bombay. Subscribed to by the Universities of Calcutta and Mysore.

SIR,

In view of the well-known sympathy for, keen interest in, and generous encouragement of the cause of Sanskrit Learning which have ever characterised the Govt of Madras, we venture to forward for your kind perusal and acceptance a copy of the magazine and trust that you will not hesitate to encourage us by sanctioning or recommending its use on the lines suggested above.

The outstanding features of this novel venture are:—

(a) The simplification of Sanskrit Learning, and its dissemination amongst the educated public, all over India, in Europe and America also.

(b) The advancement of the physical and moral culture of the rising generation of Indian and specially Hindu youths, thus attempting to counteract the evil influence upon the immature and impressionable youths, arising from the study of highly-spiced newspapers and other baneful writings and speeches, &c.

(c) Promotion of good will and harmony between individuals, sects, communities and classes, etc.

Our plan is to distribute gratis (a) at least 1000 copies of the Sanskrit part to some advanced Chatuspathis maintained in British India, Native States, Nepal and Siam by learned Pandits at their own expense. (b) and additional 1000 copies of the English part to select High, Normal, and Training Schools, Private libraries and Societies owned by private gentlemen in the interior of the country. We feel confident that your kind and liberal support will enable us to carry out the scheme. Trusting this appeal will meet with a favourable response at your hands.

Yours obediently,

UMA CHARAN BANERJEE,
Proprietor.
