From

Rev. Ejner Hoff,
Principal,
Danish Mission High School,
Tiruvannamalai.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Through

The Chairman of the Municipal Council, Tiruvannamalai.

Honoured Sir,

With the greatest satisfaction and pleasure I learn that the Honourable Devan Bahadur P. Rajagopalachariar is paying an official visit to this place on the 24th instant.

University Students of Copenhagen have subscribed a generous gift of Rs 11000/- towards the erection of a Hostel for Hindu Students studying in the Danish Mission High School and the Director of Public Instruction has informed me of his willingness to consider an application for grant towards the same and plans and estimate have consequently been forwarded to the Departmental office.

I would indeed regard it a high favour if the honourable gentleman would consent to lay the foundation stonem of the said Hostel on the day of his visit which curiously enough coincides with the 4th anniversary of the day somemorable to this school when His Excellency Lord Pentland laid the foundation stone of the present High School building.

I have the honour to be,

Honoured Sir,

Tiruvannamalai,

4th Feb 1919.

Your most obedient servant,

(Sd) Ejner Hoff

Scrutiny of the estimates may take some time. The general policy is that Subject to budget provision we encourage grants for hostels.

2. In a similar case in Madras, where there was not sufficient time to scrutinise an application for grant, Honble. Mr. Alexander Carver
