[Patronage of certain vernacular publications]

[C No 474B] From N. Venkatrayulu Son of 25. 2. 1919.

For the Reg?

With reference to their application of 17.1.19 soliciting patronage to certain vernacular publications Messrs N. Venkatrayulu & Son were informed in R.O. No 229 Home (804) of 20. 2. 1919 that, as a general rule, the selection of prize and library books ^{being} left to the discretion of heads of schools. They now reiterate their former request with the additional ^{fact} ~~fact~~ that they are willing to supply their publications at 33 1/3 % discount with a view that this discount ^{may} ~~will~~ be credited to the Red Cross fund. Attention is, in this connection, invited to Home (804) R.O. No 990 of 28. 7. 1917 and 158d of 6. 1. 1916, where ^{similar} requests ~~of that~~ have been refused in the past. Submitted that the present application may also be rejected. A draft order is submitted for approval.
