under the arrangement approved in G.O. No. 264 Ed. I, d/ 5th March 1913 as modified by G.O. No. 1266 Ed. I, d/ 23rd Nov. 1915, a temporary establishment costing not more than Rs 50 p.m. was employed in the Brahman Widows' hostel, Triplicane, for imparting ~~private~~ tuition to the widows there.

Sanction for this arrangement is continued from year to year and in calculating the period of the annual engagement, the Govt. have also been directing that the summer recess of the School, which ordinarily lasts about two months should be excluded. All the same the Director has been repeatedly applying for and obtaining sanction for the retention of the temporary establishment during summer vacations also on the plea that one-half of the widow pupils reside in the hostel during the summer vacation.

arrangement for private tuition for another year is concerned, it will be observed that the last sanction was for one year from the 18th March 1918 without any mention of the summer vacation period being excluded

(8) therefore - G.O. No. 279 Ed. No. 26.2.18

The Director has obviously kept on the tuition arrangement during the summer recess also as he now states that the last sanction for one year expired on 18th March 1919 which would not have been the case if the summer vacation had been excluded. It is presumed that the next sanction also need not mention anything about summer recess.
