Madras.

Sir,

I beg to state that at present there is a want of Tamil Readers specially intended for Girls' Schools & that to meet this want I am bringing out a series of such Readers which I propose to style 'Queen Mary Tamil Readers'. In grateful recognition of the keen interest which is being taken in education in general, and female education in particular by His Excellency The Rt. Honorable Lord Pentland, Governor of Madras, & the great progress it has made during His Excellency's administration, I propose to insert in these Readers two lessons - one on Queen Mary's High School, Vizagapatam, & the other on Queen Mary's College, Madras - two prominent institutions which owe their existence & remarkable success to His Excellency & with which His Excellency's name will ever be associated. I further propose to insert against these lessons the portrait of His Excellency Lord Pentland, & also that of Her Excellency Lady Pentland who has been taking such keen interest in the work of her husband, especially at the Queen Mary's College. I beg that you will kindly obtain Their Excellencies' gracious consent to the insertion of their portraits.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant,

C. R. Namasivayan
