For orders whether in view of the Financial Deptt.'s objection, the question of telephonic installation at the Sea Lords should be pressed. As against the arguments advanced by the D.P.I. in support of the proposal to establish telephonic connection, it may be noted that the Govt. have recently sanctioned the employment of a watchman to keep watch over the premises of the Brahmanas Widows' hostel during day time. There is also a separate night watch.

The institution is a Special one. The Inspectress of Schools is in general charge of it. I would therefore like to be in constant touch with it. It seems desirable that it should be so. One of the lady teachers of the Triplicane is in subordinate charge of the home. Though the reasons given by in the D.P.I's letter may not be warrant the installation of connection in the case of a institution, it is submitted

NOTES.

The reasons advanced are not strong
The chief reason however is that in this city of distances a telephone connection is not to be reckoned as a luxury, but is a necessary amenity for ordinary civil office.

However I do not press this recommendation against the views of both PWD & Financial
