(Designation) Superintendent, Government Museum, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O.

(N) No. 16 Financial, dated the 7th January 1919,
I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government two cases of hardship in my Establishment resulting from the operation of the orders in paragraph 2 of the G.O. The writer and the Assistant writer are now

2
drawing Rs. 28/- (in the grade Rs. 35-1-30) and Rs. 22/- per mensem (in the grade - Rs. 20-1-25) respectively. They are not eligible for grain compensation allowance, as the allowance was withdrawn from the Establishment in 1914. They are accordingly allowed a war allowance of only Rs. 3/- each and not the full amount of Rs. 6/-. In the proposals for the revision of the pay of the low paid Establishment with a view to the abolition of grain compensation allowance contained in my letter No. 378 dated 11th May 1914, disposed of in G. O. No. 1176 Educational dated the 15th October 1914, I recommended an increase in the pay of the two writers by the amount of the allowance then drawn by each of them. Government, however, considered that their scale of pay should be kept unaltered as it was revised only recently. But it will be seen from G. O.
No. 877 Educational, dated the 23rd September 1913 and 489 Educational, dated the 30th
April 1914, that the revision of the clerical

3
Establishment therein sanctioned did not benefit the writers, as the pay of the writer was reduced from Rs. 30-1-40 to Rs. 25-1-30, while that of the Assistant writer, Rs. 20-1-25 remained unaffected.

(K)
In abolishing the grain compensation allowance it was also ordered in G. O. No.
1176 Educational, dated the 15th October 1914,
that the allowance drawn by the incumbents then holding the posts would be continued as personal, and liable to be extinguished under article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations. The allowance thus became extinguished with the change of incumbents, and the present holders of the posts are not benefited by it.

In the circumstances, I have the honour to recommend that the two writers may be permitted to draw the full allowance of Rs. 6/- each with effect from 4

11th 1st January 1919.

I have the honour to be.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. Henderson.

2. Under G.O. No. 1881 dated 7-1-1919, the men now holding the appointments draw a war allowance of Rs2/- against Rs2/- per month prior to 1st January 1919. There is apparently no hardship.

War allowance to the writer and the assistant writer in the Government Museum

100-56
[No 5738]

From the Supdt. Govt Museum No 175 of 12.3.19
For the RLS.

(N)

In G.O. No 16 Financial of 7.1.1919 the Govt. sanctioned the grant of a revised scale of war allowances with effect from the 1st January 1919 for subordinates in the Presidency. The Supdt. Govt. Museum brings to notice that the writer and the assistant writer of his establishment are adversely affected by para 2 of the order as they are rendered ineligible to draw the full amount of war allowance of Rs 6. In support of the present proposal the Supdt. argues that the rates of pay fixed in G.O. No 1176 of 15.10.1914 did not provide for any corresponding increase in the emoluments of the said posts consequent on the abolition of the G.B.A. attached to them. It may be noted that ~~the Govt. order of 15.10.1914~~ there was then no real necessity for enhancing the pay of these posts for the reasons explained in para 2 of the office note on p.2 of the notes

to G.O. No 1176 Bd of 15. X. 1914.

No G.B.A. was admissible in the previous years to either of the existing incumbents. Since 1st Jan 1919 they draw a war allowance of Rs 3 p. month (against the old rate of Rs 2). The A.G. consider that there is apparently no hardship. There appears to be no strong ground for recommending the grant of the full amount of the war allowance in the cases referred to. For orders whether the G.M. may be improved accordingly - Perhaps the remarks of the Financial Dept. may, ~~be submitted~~, be invited w.o. before issuing final orders.
