Copy of letter from the District Judge, North Arcot, No. 646 dated the 25th February 1919, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

I have the honour to forward herewith a memorial submitted by A. Rameswara Bhatlu, 1st grade amin of my court to His Excellency the Governor in Council praying for exemption under the examination rules permanently to enable him to hold posts carrying a salary of Rs. 50/- per mensem.

I strongly recommend him for the exemption sought as I have found him thoroughly careful, accurate and reliable, and in my opinion he is as good as a passed man. He has worked under me for 4 years and some months and I have always found his work good. I do not know why his previous memorial was rejected, but I consider him as good as several whose applications were allowed.

work for about five years past and the work of an account clerk is onerous involving difficult questions of preparing pension applications, pay bills, contingent bills and several other -- statistical returns, etcetera, all of which require a thorough grasp of the rules in the civil service regulations and account code. Throughout this period the petitioner has been doing good work which his Honour the District Judge knows personally and will bear out.

4. The petitioner begs to state that he submitted in September 1917 a memorial praying for a similar request but to his misfortune, it was not favourably considered.

5. In these circumstances the memorialist humbly appeals to Your Excellency to take into consideration the above facts and prays to grant him exemption from examination rules to hold appointments carrying a salary of Rs.50/- per mensem.

Your Excellency's most humble memorialist begs to remain,

Subject: — Exemption from examination rules.

The applicant is one of the 56 annis, whose exemption from the examination rules was sanctioned in letter No 254 (Edw) d 27.2.19, with a view to enable them to hold posts or pay not exceeding Rs 25/- per mensem. The Dt Judge recommends his exemption for promotion up to Rs 50/- per mensem. The clerk applied in 1917 for exemption in respect of posts carrying pay not exceeding Rs 35/- per mensem, but this was refused on the ground that the then Dt Judge's recommendation on his behalf was not strong. The present Dt Judge ~~recommends~~ strongly recommends the exemption. The limit of Rs 50/- suggested, seems however, too high. Submitted that the clerk may be allowed to rise up to Rs 30/- which is the limit usually adopted. Before, however, passing final
