To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Educational) Department.

Hon'ble Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council an application, dated the 14th February 1919, from K.R. Venkatarama Ayyar, clerk, District Munsif's Court, Poonamallee, for exemption from the examination rules so as to enable him to hold posts carrying a salary of Rs.40 and for permission to appear for the Civil Judicial and Translation tests.

A copy of a letter No.291, dated the 18th February 1919, from the District Judge of Chingleput forwarding and recommending the application is also enclosed.

I have the honour
To be
Yours faithfully,
Hon'ble Sir

31-
I have the honour to forward herewith an application together with its enclosures from K.R. Venkatrama Ayyar, a clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Poonamallee, praying for exemption from examination rules for promotion up to Rs.40/- and for permission to appear for the Civil Judicial and Translation Tests. The applicant is strongly recommended by the District Munsif as endorsed on the application.

Through
The District Munsif, Poonamallee.

Most Honoured Sir,

I most humbly beg to submit the following few lines for your honour's kind consideration.

2. I am a permanent clerk on Rs. 20 in the District Munsif's Court at Poonamallee. I have now put in a total service of nearly 16 years having entered service in 1903.
Before I was entertained in this Department I was for sometime a copyist and a clerk in the Revenue Department.

3. Having passed the Lower Secondary Examination, I studied for the Matriculation Examination and through ill luck I failed to secure a pass in the Matriculation though I appeared for it twice. Except for the fact that I did not matriculate I venture to submit that I have not been found wanting either in point of general knowledge or capacity for clerical work as compared with a passed candidate. I believe I have all these 16 years been discharging my duties to the entire satisfaction of my superior officers.

M. A. Venkatesh

4 4
superiors. During most of the above period I have been doing the duties which are ordinarily attended to by passed men.

4. I am fairly well acquainted with all the details of a Munsif's Court work. I am now in charge of the Original Execution work which is considered to be a very responsible one in a Munsif's Court.

5. I beg to submit also that when I was deputed to Census work in 1911 as Supervisor, I had the good fortune to work under Mr. J.C. Wolony, I.C.S., directly. He was pleased to certify that I was "the best of the Supervisors", many of whom were no doubt passed candidates. My services were therefore retained till the end of the Census Operations on a salary of Rs. 60 per mensem. (Copies of testimonials attached).

6. Being an unpassed man, I am not eligible to get more than Rs. 20 in spite of my 16 years' long service. I need hardly state that in these days of high prices, I am unable to support my big family with my small income; and though my immediate superiors are willing to encourage me, the fact that I am not a passed candidate stands in the way of my prospects being bettered.

7. Under these circumstances, I most humbly beg that your honour will be pleased to take into your kind and sympathetic consideration my hard lot and exempt me permanently from examination Rules under Article I of the Public Service Notification, so as to make me eligible for promotion up to Rs. 40. I also may be permitted to appear for Civil Judicial Test and Translation Test.

For which act of kindness I shall as in duty bound be ever grateful.

I beg to remain,
Most Honoured Sir,
Your Honour's most obedient servant,
K.R. Venkat

Subject:— Exemption from examination rules and permission to appear for special tests

In view of the long service of the applicant and the favourable report on his work by the District Munsif, it is submitted that the exemption applied for may be granted.
It is however for consideration whether he may not for the present be allowed to rise only up to Rs 30/- per mensem, which is the limit usually adopted, leaving it to the Dt. Munsif to apply for further exemption of the clerk if necessary.
As regards Special Tests, neither the Civil Judicial Test nor the Translation Test is required for clerks posts in the Maffaasal civil courts, carrying a pay of Rs 30/- and below.
The Head clerks in Dt. Munsifs' Courts should pass the Civil Judicial Test.

pay ranging from Rs 40/- to Rs 50/- under the present scale and from

revised scale

12. R. Venkataramdaier is an exceptionally good clerk, one of the best - I have come across, in my career of over twelve years, as Munsif, in point of honesty, punctuality, and hard work. Apart from the Head-clerk there is only one other clerk in this Court to rival him as prompt and satisfactory regards and satisfactory despatch of work. In intelligence too he is not below but rather above the ordinary run of clerks in the Maffaasal Civil Courts. He also writes a very neat and bold hand. His testimonials show that other superiors likewise have been equally well pleased with his conduct and work. He counts a service of over 16 years. I respectfully venture to recommend his case as one deserving special consideration.
