Permanent

Second application for permanent exemption. In G.O.No.337 Home (Ednl.) dd.12-3-17 he was exempted from passing the Acct.
Test & the Departmental Test in Police Orders to hold an appointment on pay not exceeding Rs.50 only.

These two ~~two~~ clerks are employed in the preparation of the C.I. Gazette. Their work is of a special and confidential nature and any changes in the staff are to be deprecated. They are reported to be the hardest worked men in the C.I.D. office and thoroughly efficient. The Deputy Insp.-Genl. of Police, Rys. and C.I.D. strongly recommends their permanent exemption and I support the proposal.

The application is made solely in the interests of Public Service. The clerks will not be employed on any work for which a knowledge of Accounts is necessary.

Under Art. 3 of the Public Service Notification as amended by G.O. No. 945 (Edu) of 16. 7. 18, all clerks and others on Rs 50 and upwards in any Police Office except the Special branch of the L. I. D and the Finger-Print Bureau have to pass the Departmental Test in Police Orders and Practice. Of the two clerks whose exemption from this test is recommended by the J. Secy, Mr. Paul Davis has already been exempted from the test so as to enable him to hold appointments up to Rs 50 per month in the office of the D. I. Secy of Railway & L. I. D. The J. Secy recommends his further exemption for holding appointments on Rs 60/- and above, while he recommends the exemption of the other clerk in respect of appointments on Rs 50 and above. In the circumstances stated in columns 8 and 10 of the application, the permanent exemption of the two clerks, applied for, may, it is submitted, be sanctioned, subject, however, to the condition that the clerks should not be employed on any work for which a knowledge of accounts is essential.
