No. 8632/18

Station, Dated the 2-4- 1919

From (Name) The Hon. Mr. P. S. Sivasubramanian, M.A., (Designation) As. Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

As Mr. P. I. Painter, I.C.S., acting additional Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras may be required to revert to his ordinary duties and as Mr. E. W. Green the permanent incumbent of the post is not likely to revert to it in the near future, I have the honour to request that early steps be taken to recruit an officer for the post temporarily.

2. I beg to state that as the additional Professor will be expected to share in teaching both Honours and ordinary students the person selected should have taken a first or second class Honours degree in English literature

Literature in a British or Irish University and to have specialised on the literary rather than on the philological side. He should be able to handle generally English verse and prose from the 15th to 19th century and to deal in detail with one or more of the following periods which enter into the Honours options.

- (a) Elizabethan literature -- 1558-1603
- (b) The age of Milton and Dryden
- (c) The age of Pope and Johnson
- (d) Wordsworth and his contemporaries
- (e) Tennyson and his contemporaries.

3. The particulars referred to in G.O.No.69 Educational dated 29-1-18 are furnished below:-

(i) Institution for which recruitment is desired etc.,

The Presidency College, Madras; the leading Government College in South India affiliated in the first Grade to the Madras University and teaching arts and science up to the B.A (Honours) and M.A standards. It numbers 500-600 students in various stages of the B.A courses.

(ii) Class of teaching to be done etc.,

The Professor should be able to handle the subjects of the English courses both Pass and Honours as laid down in the Madras University Calendar (Vide pages 134, 148, 191, 382, 395, 435-9 of the Calendar for 1918)

Length of courses:- 2 years (shared with the "Special subjects" of Part II) for Intermediate and subsequently 2 years for B.A or 3 years for B.A (Honours)

(iii) Size of classes etc.,

The classes in English vary from 40 to 100 and the students from 16 to 22 years. The great majority of them are Brahmans and socially well-to-do or middle class.

(iv) Special duties to be performed etc.,

The additional Professor's duties and position would be those of a member of the Indian Educational Service. A list of the staff etc., of the Presidency College is given in the Madras University Calendar II pages 76-80.

(v) Free quarters are not provided.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. W. S. Srinivasan

for Director of Public Instruction.

The permanent incumbent of the post of Additional Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras, is Mr. Green. He is now acting as an Inspector of Schools and the post of Additional Professor is now held by Mr. P.I. Painter, I.C.S. ~~Mr.~~ Mr. Green is not likely to revert to the Presidency College and Mr. Painter's appointment is only temporary. Mr. Duncan, while acting as Director, suggested that an officer should be recruited from England temporarily to fill the post of Additional Professor of English. The present Director may, it is submitted, be asked whether the Secretary of State should be addressed as recommended by his predecessor and, if so, to furnish particulars relating to the post laid down in G.O. No. 69 Edl., dated the 29th January 1913.

Sir,

We have the honour to address you in regard to the temporary recruitment of an officer in the I.E.S. to hold the post of additional Professor of English in the Presidency College.

2. The permanent incumbent of the post (Mr. E.W.Green) has been appointed to officiate as an Inspector of Schools and ^{it is not} ~~likely~~ ^{likely} that he will revert therefrom in the near future. There is at present no officer in the I.E.S. who has the requisite qualifications to hold the post of Additional Professor of English and we consider it necessary that an officer should be recruited in England to fill the post at an early date.

As a temporary expedient we have appointed a member of the I.C.S. to act in the post.

3. The accompanying statement sets forth the ^{particulars concerning} ~~particulars concerning~~ the post. The candidate selected should have taken a first or second class Honours degree in English literature in a British or Irish University and specialised on the literary rather than on the philological side. He should be able to handle generally English verse and prose from the 15th to the 19th century and to deal in detail with one or more of the following periods which ^{standards for Honours} ~~standards for Honours~~ Honours

~~course~~ course are permitted to study: -

- Elizabethan Literature 1558-1637.
- The age of Milton and Dryden.
- The age of Pope and Johnson.
- Wordsworth and his contemporaries.
- Tennyson and his contemporaries.

4. We request that the candidate selected may be sent out as early as practicable.
