Clerk on Rs.50 Permanent.		2		The post in which it is proposed to employ him and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.
Rs.50 permanent.		3		The sanctioned pay of the post and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.
Departmental Test for clerks in Police Offices.		4		The examination from which exemption is sought.
Permanent		5		The period for which the appointment is expected to last.
Permanent.		6		The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and termination).
First application.		7		In this a first application or one for a renewal of a sanction to grant the order granting sanction to the candidate has already been exempted.
The applicant is the senior clerk on Rs.40 in the District Police Office, Tinnevely, and has put in 27 years' service. He has been acting as a clerk on Rs.50 since 19-7-1917 in a long leave vacancy which has since become permanent. The prescription of the Departmental Test as a qualification for a post on Rs.50 in January 1918 rendered the applicant ineligible to hold the appointment on Rs.50. He was temporarily exempted by me for one year and given a chance to pass the test. He appeared for the test and failed. The Superintendent reports that his failure at 51 years of age was only natural, but as he has a thoroughly practical knowledge of police. Orders he strongly recommends his exemption in consideration of his age, service and experience. I agree. The concession if granted will be in the interests of departmental administration.		8		What steps have been taken to secure the services of other candidates and with what result?
Recommended.		9		Recommendation of the head of the department.
		10		Remarks.
