the Departmental Test until the results of the examination held in January last were published. He has failed in the examination and the Deputy Inspector-General recommends his further exemption. He has a service of 14 years and is reported to be reliable and efficient.

3. The typists of the offices of the Deputy Inspectors-General of Police, Northern and Central Ranges, are recommended for exemption for appointment as the second clerk on Rs.25-2-35 in their respective offices in the new scale sanctioned in G.O. No.309 Home (Judicial) dated the 7th February 1919. They have put in a service of nearly 9 and 11 years respectively and are reported to be well-acquainted with a clerk's work. The Deputy Inspectors-General concerned strongly recommend the exemption.

4. Application in the prescribed form is attached.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J.S. W. Sivas

for signature and designation of Police.

In view of the fairly long service of Mr. Le. Papayya Sarstri, Head Clerk, office of the Dy. Inspector-General of Police, Northern Range and the favorable report on his work, his temporary exemption from the departmental test in Police Orders and Practice may be sanctioned. As regards the two typists whose permanent exemption from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notification is recommended by the Dy. Inspector-General of Police, attention is solicited to the case disposed of in Bco. No. 1653, Home (Genl) of 23.12.18 in which the Govt. declined to sanction the exemption of a typist in the Dy. Inspector-General's office for appointment as a clerk, on the ground that he could rise to a maximum of Rs 50/- as a typist. It is for consideration whether the Govt. ^{will} grant the exemption of the typists, in the present case.
