MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1 The Petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs to state that he is a paternal shadi grandson of the late Hon'ble Nawab Sir Sharaful-Umera Bahadur, K.C.S.I., (the fourth grandson of the late H.H. Anvaruddin Khan, ruler of the Carnatic) who was a Member of the Madras Legislative Council and was in receipt of a monthly stipend of Rs.2,000/-

✓ That the said Nawab Sharaful-Umera Bahadur took a keen interest in affairs connected with the education of the Muhammadan community, established a primary school at Mylapore, wherein English was introduced for the first time and started several scholarships for poor boys at his own expense. At the time of the Great Indian Mutiny he tried his best and exercised his influence to impress on the minds of his co-religionists the necessity of fidelity to the British Government.

3 That the petitioner at an early age lost his father and was, unfortunately deprived of a legal share from his family Carnatic pension. In consequence of these calamities he was debarred from obtaining higher education, and was able only to prosecute his studies up to the IV Form, at Harris High School, Madras.

To

The Right Honourable

the Secy. of State for India.

Sir,

In your predecessor's telegram to the Govt. of India, dated the 17th August 1916, sanction was accorded to the creation, for a period of two years, of an additional post of lady professor in the Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras, on a salary of Rs.400 p.m., without exchange compensation allowance; and the permanent retention of the post was subsequently sanctioned in your telegram to that Government, dated the 2nd October 1918. Miss Maud Isabel Ebbutt, a European lady by birth, has been holding the post since the 2nd July 1917 and has proved herself to be a capable and zealous Professor. The D.P.I. ~~strongly~~ recommends her confirmation in the post with effect from the 3rd October 1918, the date of receipt of sanction to the permanent retention of the College, and we commend the proposal for your favourable consideration.

2. We forward herewith a statement of Miss Ebbutt's qualifications.
