Station Madras, Dated the 1/5 May 1919.

From (Name) Major-General G.G. Giffard, C.S.I., I.M.S.

(Designation) Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Local and Municipal (Medical) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the favourable consideration of Government the enclosed letter No.R.C.919/G1.of 19, dated 29th March 1919, from the Senior Medical Officer, General Hospital, Madras, recommending that assistant stewards Vijayaraghavalu Nayudu and Venkatarama Ayyar be permanently exempted from the Examination Rules for appointments carrying pay not exceeding Rs.50/- per mensem in the General Hospital, Madras.

2. A. Vijayaraghavalu Nayudu was permanently exempted from the provisions of article 1 of the Public Service

2
Notification for employment as third assistant steward in the General Hospital on Rs.25/- per mensem from 4th June 1915 vide G.O.No.997, Educational, Mis., dated the 13th September 1915. (20) Venkatarama Ayyar is a permanent assistant steward on Rs.15/- per mensem having been appointed to the post some 9 years ago. In view of the report of the Senior Medical Officer that the two assistant stewards have worked in the hospital for more than 9 years and are well up in all the details of diet accounts and hospital duties, it is recommended that Government will be pleased to exempt them permanently from the necessary educational qualifications for appointments carrying pay not exceeding Rs.50 per mensem in the General Hospital, Madras.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Major-General, I.M.S.

Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

3
Copy of letter from the Senior Medical Officer, General Hospital, Madras, to the Personal Assistant to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, R.C.No.919/G1.of 19, dated 29th March 1919.

I have the honour to state that two Assistant stewards Vijayaraghavalu Naidu and Venkatarama Ayyar have been working in this hospital for more than nine years and are well up in all the details of diet accounts and hospital duties and works satisfactorily.

✓ They are not permitted to draw the acting allowances attached to the appointments over Rs.25 and Rs.15 unless sanctioned by the Surgeon-General every time they are appointed to act as they are not qualified to hold higher appointments under Public Service Notifications. This necessitates frequent application to be submitted to the Surgeon-General for temporary exemption from the examination rules.

3 To avoid frequent correspondence and delay in getting any allowance to these men, I propose that these two men be exempted from the examination rules for promotion to higher appointments carrying pay not exceeding Rs.50/- in this hospital.

4 Vijayaraghavalu Naidu, the senior of the two was exempted from the Public Service Examination Rules and promoted to the Third Assistant steward on Rs.25/- per mensem as per G.O.No. 997, Educational, Mis., dated 13th September 1915 and as Assistant Accountant in charge of diets temporarily for more than one year as per your letter R.C.No.2194/2, dated 12th March 1914.

Of the two Assistant Stewards, whose exemption from the examination rules is sought for, Vijayaraghavulu Nayudu draws Rs.25 p.m. and Venkatarama Ayyar Rs.15 p.m. The S.G. recommends the exemption of both for promotion up to Rs.50 p.m. The grounds for exemption are:-

(1) That they have been working in the Hospital for more than nine years and are well up in their duties

(2) that it is necessary to make frequent applications to the Surgeon General for temporary exemption of the Assistant Stewards from the examination rules in order to enable them to draw acting allowances.

Neither of the grounds appears to be sufficiently strong to warrant the grant of exemption up to Rs 50, the limit suggested by the Senior Medical Officer. It is however for consideration whether in view of the S.G.'s recommendation which L & M supports and the fact that the duties of the Assistant Stewards are more or less of a routine nature, the permanent exemption applied for may be granted. If so, the draft order below is for approval.
