M A D R A S.

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your notice the case of one I.V. Subrahmanyan, a permanent clerk on Rs. 20/- in this Circle for favour of consideration in connection with exempting him permanently from the examination rules to hold posts up to Rs. 40/-. I.V. Subrahmanyan is an unpassed candidate who has been continuously in employment for the past 9 years. --- Judging from his service of nearly 10 years in the Department he has ~~uniformly~~ ^{uniformly} given satisfaction and as regards both quality and outturn he ranks well above many permanent passed clerks on higher pay. He is reported by Mr. Bhaskara Iyer, Executive Engineer Godavari Conservancy Division, to be intelligent,

8	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?	The clerk holds a substantive appointment on Rs 20/- and is proposed to be taken to higher grade as opportunities occur being an intelligent & useful clerk.

hardworking and fairly steady. Thus his advancement above Rs.20/- is justified by his qualifications and experience in the department. He is employed as a Store clerk in the Godavari Conservancy Division and he will shortly be posted as a Sub Divisional clerk which place he is competent to hold.

2. He is the son-in-law of one Mr.Ch.Lingamurty pantulu, late Head clerk in the Godavari Conservancy Division, who retired after a long and satisfactory service. The pensioner requested that in consideration of his long service in the Department, his son-in-law might be exempted permanently from the examination rules up to Rs.50/- As the qualifications of Subrahmanyan justify such a request I recommend that he may be permanently exempted from the examination rules to hold the posts up to Rs.40/-.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
