	D. Kristna Rao, 27 years, Lower Secondary Examination. Appeared for the Matriculation Examination in 1908. Has passed the Departmental test and Board Standing Order.	2nd Clerk's place.		Rs.30-2-40.		Matriculation or Secondary School -- Leaving Certificate under Article 1 of Public Service Notification.		The appointment is permanently --- vacant.		Permanent.		This clerk was exempted for appointments carrying Rs.30 in Board's Proceedings Forest No.330 Mis., dated - 9-11-1917. He acted as 2nd Clerk on Rs.30-2-40 for 9 months when the --- permanent man was on leave.		As there are no sufficient number of qualified clerks in the Revenue --- Branch for Forest office work, this exemption has been sought for.		He is an unpassed candidate with exemption to hold appointments up to Rs.30 and with permission to appear for the Account and Revenue Tests for which he will appear this year. He has also 11 years experience as a Forest Clerk and though unpassed is intelligent and quite capable of carrying on any work required of Forest Clerk. He studied for the Matriculation appeared for and passed the first examination of 1908., though unfortunately has failed in the re-examination and was not able to appear for the modified examination instituted from the following year 1909; and that is how he remains an unpassed candidate. I am therefore confident that he will fill the vacancy satisfactorily as he has done well as a Timber Accountant Clerk in the Forest Office.

Designation. For Asst. Commr.

The Board is competent to sanction his exemption of Rs. 2-4-0 of the PS Notification for appointments up to Rs.30/-. Though unpassed he is intelligent and capable of satisfactorily discharging the duties of any clerk up to Accountant's place in a Forest Office, as he has put in a service of 11 years in the Forest Branch only. There is always difficulty in providing Forest offices with men from the Revenue Branch as they are without experience of the technical details of the work in a Forest office. And in view of vacancies that will arise when the fourth Division for the District is also sanctioned, when qualified hands would be needed for filling the new posts, the exemption now recommended would provide one duly qualified for one of the several vacancies referred to.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

N. Venkatachandra
