To

His Excellency The Governor of Fort St. George,
Government House,
Ootacamund.

Most Humbly and Respectfully Sheweth.-

I beg to inform your Excellency that I have just finished writing in Tamil a Small Booklet entitled "Britain and the War" which I wish ^{to} get printed and distributed to the School going population of the Tamil Districts of the Presidency and as I cannot find the necessary monetary help for the successful publication of the same, I beg to approach your Excellency with a request that your Excellency may be pleased to contribute for the same. I intend that in case your Excellency is willing to do so, to superscribe the book as "distributed gratis to Students with the kind patronage of H.E. The Governor of Madras" and send copies to all Schools for distribution through their respective Headmasters. My primary idea is to get 2,500 copies printed - the cost of which will come to about Rs.400/- and should a plate of your Excellency's Photograph be added it will be another Rs.50/- in addition. I hope that as the War is over your Excellency will be graciously pleased to contribute this amount as the help your Excellency will be rendering in the cause will always be considered a handsome one by the School-going population of the Tamil Districts.

On hearing from your Excellency I shall send the -- Manuscript copy for favour of an Introduction before sending it to the press.

Awaiting your Excellency's favourable reply,

I beg to remain,

Your Excellency's Most obedient Servant,

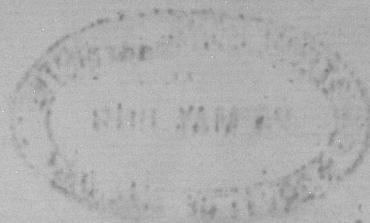

K. Arunachala Aiyar

C.No.1037 B

From K. Arunachala Ayyar, Madras, dated 19-5-19.

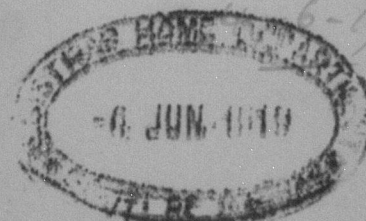

Subject:- Requesting Government to contribute a sum for the publication of a book entitled "Britain and the War".

p. 5 of notes to
G.O.436/26-7-10 x

It has been usual for the Government to patronise publications by purchasing a certain number of copies and distributing them to Educational institutions. The present application is for a contribution of Rs. 400 plus Rs.50 for a plate of H.E's photograph towards the cost of publishing a booklet in Tamil entitled "Britain and the War". The applicant has not submitted the original manuscript of the booklet for the perusal of the Government and in the absence of it, it is not possible to say whether the booklet will be of use in schools. As the Government do not generally contribute towards the publication of books the petitioner's request may be negatived. A draft order is submitted for approval. It may please with the
