From C.F. Brackenbury Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Kurnool R.C. No.1352/Genl. of 1919, dated the 9th May 1919.

In forwarding herewith an application for exemption from Article 1 of the Public Service Notification on behalf of M.Veeriah, 2nd clerk, Taluk office Nandikotkur, to hold posts carrying a pay of Rs.35, I have

1.28 (J)

have the honour to state that the clerk has put in 10 years service in the department and is permanent on Rs. 30 having been exempted by the Board in Board's Proceedings No. 4532 Mis., dated 21st December 1914. He is well up in every branch of work and is at present discharging the duties of the Head Clerk of the Taluk office, Nandikotkur, though he is only a Rs. 30 clerk. He has been able to pass the Revenue test examination which shows him to possess fairly good abilities.

2. Both the Tahsildar and Divisional officer under whom the clerk has been working speak very well of him. I consider that it is but just that clerks of such a type should be encouraged in their good work, especially in a district where the dearth of competent hands is keenly felt. I therefore strongly recommend the application.

2. In column 1 of the application it is stated that the clerk passed the Rev. Test last year. It is not clear under what authority he was permitted to appear for the Test. It however appears from para 1 of the Collector's letter that the Board exempted him from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notification for promotion up to Rs 30 in its Proceedings No 4532 (mis) of 21.12.14. under the Special Tests

* No Special Test is required the clerk was exempted from the Board.

Notification as it was in force prior to 1918, an unpassed candidate who had been exempted by the Board of Revenue from the provisions of Art. 1 of the P. S. Notification could appear not more than three times for the Rev. Test (Higher) and any number of times for the Rev. Test (Lower). The distinction between the higher and lower grades was subsequently abolished and the Special Tests were also thrown open to all Govt. servants possessing the minimum general educational qualification. As a corollary to the latter ^{change} the provision to Art. 4 of the Special Tests Notification referred to above was abolished as it was obsolete, - Vide portion marked A at p. 12 of the notes with Gco. No 568 (Rev) 30-4-18 - so that under the Special Tests Notification as it had been in force from May 1918, no unpassed candidate can appear for the Special Tests unless (1) he is permitted by the Govt. to appear for them or (2) exempted by the Board of Revenue or Govt. with a view to his employment in a specified post for which any test or tests have been prescribed.

It is not known whether the clerk

appeared for the Rev. Test prior to 1918 and if so for the higher or lower grade. In any case the point is not free from doubt whether the exemption granted by the Board in December 1914 could be considered to have conferred on the clerk the right to appear for the Revenue Test in October 1918, when the Special Tests Notification as modified by G.O. No 568, Home (Rev. T) 30.4.18 had come into force.
Prima facie it would appear that ^{inasmuch as} note 7 to A.R. 4 of the Special Tests Notification ~~was~~ as it was in force prior to 1918 was superseded by the notification issued under the above G.O., the clerk should not have been permitted to appear for the Revenue Test, without the sanction of Govt. Subject to approval a paragraph has been added to the draft to the above effect.
