Board of Revenue,

Rev. Sett., Sur., L.R. & Agriculture.

Madras 2nd May 1919.

Dear Moscardi,

With reference to the principles propounded
 (E) in paragraph 2 of G.O. 329 Home (Educational) dated 17th March 1919, I think it is right to point out that the Board's recent report (B.P. No. 184/Confdl.
 No. 64, dated 30th October 1918) on the steps to be taken for the amelioration of the depressed classes does not appear to have been read and considered in connexion with the subject.

Yours sincerely,

A copy of G.O. no 329 of 17.3.19 is placed below. This may be returned to Rev.

To Under Secretary.

- (E) Please see Mr. Buckley's D.O. on p1 supra. G.O. no 329 Home (Edn) of 17.3.1919 deals with the question of admission of the children of panchamas into schools under public management, while the Board's report in P.O. no 184 of 30.10.1918 deals with the general question of the amelioration of the depressed classes which has been disposed of in G.O. 748 Rev of 29.3.1919.

pp 22-25 of the G.O. in (S)

(S) It is not clear what Mr. Buckley means exactly when he says that the latter report does not appear to have been read & considered when

- (E) passing the G.O. no 329 Edn of 17.3.1919, the Rev. P.O. of 29.3.19 could not be read in the C.O. (Home Dept) of 17.3.19.
 As, however, the subject matter of the G.O. concerns Home (Edn), it is submitted that the file may be transferred to that Department.

M: Buckley clearly means that para 2 of the G.O. is contrary to the Board's recommendation for special schools for the depressed class.

The Board's remarks on the subject of the extension of elementary education among the depressed classes are on page

- (S) 25 of G.O. No. 748 Rev., dated the 29th March 1919. The Board expressed the opinion that such extension should be brought about by the opening of special schools to the benefit of the depressed classes as has been the practice hitherto. As pointed out by Mr. Buckley, these remarks were not taken into consideration when

- (E) G.O. No. 329 Home (Edn), dated the 17th March 1919, ^(wa. issued) as ~~an~~ extract from the B.P. referred to was ~~not~~ received in this Dept. There need, however, be no apprehension that special schools ^{for Panchamas} would disappear as a result of of the orders issued in para 2

- (E) of G.O. No. 329 Home (Edn), dated the 17th March 1919. Special schools will continue to be opened wherever there may be need for the same. In the current year, subsidies have been sanctioned to local bodies for the opening of 82 schools for Panchamas. On a suggestion made at the meeting of the Finance Committee held in January,

(Separate file)

The D.P. has been requested to consider report on the question of providing special secondary schools for Panchoama.

It does not appear that any reply should be sent to the demiofficial on page 1 supra. Perhaps the file itself ^{Board of Reg} may be sent to the ~~Board of Reg~~ ~~for perusal & return.~~

From an Edel point of view I still adhere to para 2 of E.O.
(E) 329 of 17 Mar 1919. Special schools cannot be an ultimate remedy. They are at the best transitional remedies. Expect more in individual scholarship holders fight ^{at their} rights to claim admn in public schools
2 But as pointed out above, the B. P. need not be under any apprehension that the current policy of special schools is to be dropped at once. These will continue to be opened under suitable circumstances till the necessity for special
